

PUBLICATION GUIDELINES JOURNAL

TOPOFILIA. Revista de arquitectura, urbanismo y territorios is a Journal of the Instituto de Ciencias Sociales y Humanidades "Alfonso Vález Pliego" of the Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla. The Editorial Board would welcome any original articles and book reviews to the editor.

Sending originals. The articles must be original, written in Spanish or English, relating to their own research in the areas of architecture and urban and territorial studies. Shall be sent to the Editorial of the journal TOPOFILIA. Journal of the Instituto de Ciencias Sociales y Humanidades "Alfonso Vález Pliego" of the Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla. Avenida Juan de Palafox y Mendoza 208, Centro Histórico de Puebla, C.P. 72000. E-mail: arq.aurora@gmail.com

Arbitration items in TOPOFILIA. The original selection is governed by the system of external evaluation and anonymous, confidential matter experts (blind pairs method chosen at random). In case of discrepancy in the peer evaluation, the text will be sent to a third referee, whose decision will define its publication. The results of the academic opinion will be final in all cases. At the time of acceptance for publication of their articles, authors should formalize the assignment of copyright to TOPOFILIA, under the conditions set by the Journal. The authors have the right to receive a copy of the volume in which his work appeared.

Overview. On the first page of any collaboration should include general information about the item and its (s) author (s), including: article title, description, full name, nationality, E - mail, cell, Center, or Department that is attached labor, street address, city and country.

Presentation and length of articles. The articles must not contain any evidence of identity or institutional affiliations of the authors, except where this is requested. The text should be submitted in letter size, single-spaced, in Times New Roman font type 12 point, with an area of between 4,000 and 10,000 words presented in a maximum of 30 pages (including tables, figures, notes and bibliography). Items that do not meet this requirement will be returned to the authors. Papers should include a title, which, with the fewest possible words, adequately describing the content of the article. The title should be translated into Spanish. Also include a summary in the original language in which the article is written and in Spanish, not to exceed 200 words. Must be accompanied by three descriptors or keywords separated by (,), in the original language and Spanish article. This rule does not apply to the Reviews section.

The hierarchy of the content (headings and subheadings) will be the capital for the first level small caps and italic for the second round for the third.

Do not bleed at the beginning of paragraph, or space between the two.

To highlight words or expressions are used italics or quotation marks, never be resorted to underline or highlight in bold.

Tables, Figures and graphics shall conform to the case of the Journal, should be numbered consecutively (Arabic numerals) and independently, take a brief title (centered, in capital letters). At the foot sources indicated. The headwaters of the pictures will be composed in italics, the rest normal.

Notes and references. Notes should be the essential and are placed at the bottom of each page. No footnotes include page references. The references should not be excessively long (only mentioned in the text), and must appear at the end of the complete article, ordered alphabetically and, for each author, in chronological order, from oldest to youngest.

To the authors or authors quote the text in brackets indicate the last name separated by a comma and year (Perez, 2005), in case the quotation is text, the text shall quotation marks, and brackets in addition to the name and the year, the page where the text quoted (Perez, 2005:27). The full citation will be the end of the text, not footnotes.

The references. Indicate only the works cited in the text. It will use the alphabetical order of names, the first letter uppercase and lowercase follows, followed, preferably, the full name of the author / s or author / authors and the year of publication in parentheses. In case of multiple citations by the same author and the same year, work is differentiated by consecutive lowercase letters after the year:

Book:

- In the case of a book, the title goes in italics, indicating the city below and the publisher.

• Example:

Andrews, Gavin J. and Phillips, David R. (2005). Ageing and Place. Perspectives, policy, practice. New York: Routledge.

Book chapter:

- With the same criterion cited book chapters, being in italics the title of the book.

• Example:

Sousa González, Eduardo (2013). El espacio público. Una visión interpretativa desde la posición de Jürgen Habermas y Hannah Arendt", en Sánchez-González, Diego, y Egea-Jiménez, Carmen (coord.), La ciudad, un espacio para la vida. Miradas y enfoques desde la experiencia espacial. Granada: Universidad de Granada, pp. 43-58.

Article:

- In the case of an article, the title will be quoted, the name of the journal in italics, and then volume (Vol.), number (Nº) of the magazine and first and last pages.

• Example:

Sánchez-González, Diego y Egea-Jiménez, Carmen, (2011). Enfoque de vulnerabilidad social para investigar las desventajas socioambientales. Su aplicación en el estudio de los adultos mayores, Papeles de Población, Vol. 17, Nº 69, pp. 151-185.

Electronic resources:

- To the extent possible, electronic resources will be cited according to the following general model: Lead manager (author / author) (year) Title. Head (s) side (s). [Type of medium]. Edition. Place of publication: Publisher (Collection), update or revision. Physical description. Letters. <availability And access>. [Accessed].

• Example:

Algaba, Antonio (2003). La discriminación en el acceso al mercado de la vivienda: las desventajas de la inmigración. Novedades y permanencias, Scripta Nova. Revista Electrónica de Geografía y Ciencias Sociales, Vol. 7, Nº 146(060). <http://www.ub.es/geocrit/sn/sn-146\(060\).htm.htm)> [20 de febrero de 2015]

The works shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Editorial Board of the Journal. Receipt of the originals within fifteen days. The Editorial Board, after receiving the mandatory anonymous reporting, decide upon publication within a period of six months from receipt in secretariat. The Editorial Board of Context rejects any work that does not comply with these standards.